PASSED WORTHLESS CHECKS ON BUSINESS ACQUAINTANCES

A young man who formerly lived here and whose parents are now respected citizens of Ypsilanti came here last week and with a companion put up at the Hawkins house. He is said to have represented to business men, former acquaintances, that he had come home on a visit and had been having a good time and his money was gone and he was not in condition to present himself just then. He asked several business men, former acquaintances, to help him to a little ready cash, giving therefor checks on the Western Savings bank of Pittsburgh, Penn. He had a check book on that bank and everything appeared all right. The people on whom he called knew him well and his family, and readily accommodated him, taking the checks given and banking them. There was a report that he got $200 in this way, but all the reporter could learn anything definite about is $60. The checks proved to be worthless, but in the meantime the young man had disappeared. It is said that the checks together with the stamps which had to be placed on them, the cost of protesting and all expenses in the matter amount to something over $67. It is understood that no prosecution is likely as the matter will be settled up and the money paid back to the friends who took the young man's word and checks. In the meantime the whereabouts of the young man seem not to be known.

ALEXANDER BAKER COMMITTED SUICIDE

FORMERLY LIVED ON ELLIS ST IN THIS CITY

Family Moved Away From There Some Three or Four Weeks Ago

A dispatch has been received in this city stating that a Mr. Baker, who formerly lived in this city, had committed suicide in Chicago and that his remains would be sent here for interment. It is supposed, although the Times was unable to obtain definite information, that the man is Alexander Baker, who formerly lived at 317 Ellis street. The family left Ypsilanti three or four weeks ago and went to Chicago. A young son, Harry, was left here in school to remain until the close of the year. Mr. Baker was engaged in insurance. It seems for some reason they did not like Chicago and arrangements had been made to move from there to Elgin, Illinois. The wife went to make a visit to some friends in Wisconsin. It was while she was absent that Mr. Baker committed the rash act. What caused him to do the deed or just how it was done is not known.

ANNUAL MEETING HOME ASSOCIATION

The 44th annual meeting and banquet of the Ypsilanti Home association, the interdenominational charitable association of the city, was held at the Congregational church Tuesday evening.

The business meeting, with its reports of committees and officers and the election of officers for the ensuing year, was first on the program, after which the ladies of the society and their husbands, to the number of 80, sat down to an excellent supper served by the Congregational ladies.

The reports showed that the past year has been a period of growth in the association, and that its operations have been gradually extended in all directions.

Mrs. Gilbert was re-elected president for the 27th time, and Mrs. Florine Yost and Mrs. William Clark were re-elected respectively secretary and treasurer.

The following program of toasts was announced at the banquet by Toastmaster Austin George:

"Practical Sociology," Prof. C. O. Hoyt.

"The Social Problem as it Appears to the Employer," D. Peyton Sullivan.

"Reflex Action of Charitable Efforts," Miss Nora Murphy.

"Gratitude," Prof. E. A. Strong.

"Charity Begins at Home," W. H. Sweet.

"Industrial Training," Miss Anna Cutcheon.

"The Holiness of Helpfulness," Prof. S. B. Laird.

The poet's exclamation: "O Life! I feel you bounding in my veins," is a joyous one. Persons that can rarely or never make it, in honesty to themselves, are among the most unfortunate. They do not live, but exist; for to live implies more than to be. To live is to be well and strong—to arise feeling equal to the ordinary duties of the day, and to retire not overcome by them—to feel life bounding in the veins. A medicine that has made thousands of people, men and women, well and strong, has accomplished a great work, bestowing the richest blessings, and that medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. The weak, run-down, or debilitated, from any cause, should not fail to take it. It builds up the whole system, changes existence into life, and makes life more abounding. We are glad to say these words in its favor to readers of our columns.

HOME TALENT TRIES VAUDEVILLE

OPERA HOUSE WAS CROWDED TO HEAR THE PROGRAM.

PERFORMANCE A GOOD ONE

Entertainment Was a Success and a Credit to the Management.

An excellent vaudeville performance was given in the opera house last evening by home talent from the Normal and city, under the auspices of the Whittmore's orchestra.

The house was crowded and the evening was excessively warm, but the spectators vigorously flourished fans, and from this fact and the continuous interest which attached to the program the heat did not obtrude itself as much on the general attention as would have been expected.

The program was one full of life, fun and good music, and every number was well rendered.

The first act consisted of a 45-minute farce comedy, "His Own Rival," given by Mr. Roy Buell and Miss DeLynn Deubel, as Jack Ludlow, a young benedict, and Louise Ludlow, his wife. Mrs. Ludlow was married under protest and only in obedience to her father's command, but she has since fallen in love with her husband, although the latter does not come to a knowledge of this second fact until the concluding scene of the play. Ludlow fancies that his wife still loves her former suitor, Tom, and endeavors by making an appointment with her under the disguise of Tom, to confront her with her faithlessness. Mrs. Ludlow comes triumphant out of the ordeal, as she confesses to the supposed Tom, that she no longer loves him, but instead has lost her heart to her husband, so the couple kiss and make up, and the curtain descends amid a storm of applause. The farce is clever, full of good comedy and unexpected situations, and it was given with great skill by Miss Deubel and Mr. Buell.

There was nothing amateurish about the work of either, and in fact both displayed marked talent.

The remainder of the program consisted of concert and vaudeville numbers, all of which were given enthusiastic applause. They were: Two solos by Mr. Fred Ellis, the popular baritone; a solo by Miss Pearl Paquette of the Conservatory; Messrs. Haggitt and Lyons in clever buck and wing dancing; the Normal class club swinging exhibition, which won the medal at the Intercollegiate Field Day meet; Mr. Harold F. Spencer, baritone, in "The Holy City" and "Off for Philadelphia," a solo by Miss DeLynn Deubel, and an exhibition of horizontal bar work by L. P. Whitcomb and Dan Kimball of the Normal.

The entertainment was a decided success and a credit to the managers.

WARREN H. SMITH GOES TO FLINT

Warren H. Smith some days ago was elected principal of the Flint high school for ensuing year. Yesterday he decided to accept and accordingly signed a contract to that effect. He will move his family to Flint about the middle of August. Mr. Smith is a man of large experience in public school work and will unquestionably fill the place with satisfaction to all concerned. He is a graduate of the Ypsilanti high school and of the University and is a student of educational questions. He would succeed in any position he will accept.

WHERE WAS THE GREEN AND WHITE

Normals Didn't Show Up Well in Track Meet

THE BASE BALL GAME

Today is What They are Laying for and Hope to Win the Bracket Cup

Hillsdale, Mich., June 7.—The Normal contingent arrived here safely this morning, announcing their presence vocally by a choice assortment of college and class yells, and visually by the green and white banners, rosettes and streamers which decorated their persons and belongings. The young ladies of the party were taken charge of by the Hillsdale College girls, who are to be the hostesses of all the visiting representatives of the fair sex during the meet, and the young men were given friendly lines on the situation by committees of male students.

The tennis matches resulted disastrously for the pedagogues, as they lost the doubles to M. A. C. by 6-2, 6-2, and the singles to the same college by 6-3, 6-2.

In the tennis doubles Albion won from Kalamazoo, 6-3, 6-1; Olivet forfeited to Hillsdale; Albion won from Hillsdale, 6-2, 6-1; and in the finals Hyney and Matthewson of Albion won from Sheldon and Willets, of M. A. C., 8-6, 7-5, 6-3.

In the singles the victory of M. A. C. over Ypsilanti, Olivet forfeited to Albion; Kalamazoo won from Hillsdale 6-0, 6-2. The finals have not been played.

In the field day and track events thus far the only score made for Ypsilanti was by Fraser, who won second in the quarter-mile bicycle.

The events were captured as follows: 100-yard dash—First heat, Schultz, M. A. C., won; Koster, Kalamazoo, second; time, 11.15; second heat, Morgan, Olivet, won; Depew, Hillsdale, second; time, 11 seconds. Finals—Schultz, M. A. C., won; Depew, Hillsdale, second; Koster, Kalamazoo, third; time, 10.35 seconds.

Quarter-mile bicycle race—Conyue, M. A. C., won; Fraser, Ypsilanti, second; Bushnell, Kalamazoo, third. Cortright, of Hillsdale, fell and broke his front wheel. His shoulder was broken. Mile run—Schock, Kalamazoo, won; Ward, Hillsdale, second; Hill, Albion, third; time, 4:50.

Hop, step and jump—Schultz, M. A. C., won, 46 feet 6 1/2 inches; Widrig, Albion, second, 41 feet 7 1/2 inches; Hoag, Hillsdale, third.

440-yard dash—Depew, Hillsdale, won; Malone, M. A. C., second; Koster, Kalamazoo, third; time, 53 seconds.

One mile bicycle—Conine (M. A. C.), first; Roemac, second; Fuller (Olivet), third. Time, 2 minutes, 43.35 seconds.

Standing broad jump—Carpenter (M. A. C.), first; Shultz (M. A. C.), second; Marshall (Albion), third. Distance, 10 feet 11 1/2 inches.

Running high jump—Shultz (M. A. C.), first; Edgar (M. A. C.), second; Whitcomb (Ypsilanti), third. Height, 5 feet 2 1/2 inches.

Mile walk—Carrier (M. A. C.), first; Walser (Ypsilanti), second; Clark (Olivet), third. Time, 8 minutes, 24 1/2 seconds.

Shot-put—Maddock (Albion), first; Edmunds (Ypsilanti), second; Taylor (Hillsdale), third. Distance, 35 feet.

Half-mile race—Widrig (Albion), first; Driskel (M. A. C.), second; Hill (Albion), third. Time, 2 minutes, 8.25 seconds.

Pole-vault—Shulz (M. A. C.), first; Ward (Hillsdale), second; Whitcomb, third. Height, 9 feet, 7 inches.

220-yard dash—Shultz (M. A. C.), first; Malone (M. A. C.), second; Depew (Hillsdale), third. Time, 23.45 seconds.

FRIDAY EVENING.

Middleweight wrestling—First, Exelby, Albion; second, Brunger, M. A. C. Horizontal bar—First, Whitcomb, Ypsilanti; second, Payne, Ypsilanti.

Lightweight wrestling—First, Barringer, M. A. C.; second, Rogner, Ypsilanti.

Welterweight wrestling—First, Exelby, Albion; second, Brunger, M. A. C. Class club swinging—Won by Ypsilanti; Murray, Whitcomb, Stitt, Trivis, Van Alsburg, Melody, Fuler, Saxton.

Individual club swinging—First, Fuler, M. A. C.; second, Murray, Ypsilanti.

Heavyweight wrestling—First, Maddock, Albion; second, Wolfe, Ypsilanti.

Featherweight wrestling—First, Bryant, M. A. C.; second, Payne, Ypsilanti.

ALBION WON THE BALL GAME

The exciting event of the day was the ball game between Albion and Olivet to decide which is to play Ypsilanti tomorrow in the finals for the Bracket cup. Score: Innings . . . 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—R H E Albion . . . 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 4 6 13 4 Olivet . . . 0 0 1 0 1 2 1 0 0 5 9 3 Batteries: Davis and Sebastian; Elliott and Hall.

The sorrowful news reached the city by telephone Saturday about supper time that the Normals were defeated by Albion for the baseball trophy in the afternoon, by 16 to 5.

The team had a hitherto unbroken record of victories for the season, and hope has run high in the college that they would land the championship. It was generally regarded as an auspicious sign that Albion instead of Olivet won, Friday, as the Normal defeated Albion in an exhibition game early in the season, and the Ypsilantians figured that they certainly ought to be able to repeat the operation.

The Normal party returned at 10:10 local time last night, and filed silently to their respective homes, all too downcast to give any more evidence of their arrival than by a few half-hearted cheers on alighting from the train.

The sole topic of conversation was the disaster, and how it happened to happen, but it was noticeable that no one attached particular blame to any special individual member of the team. The luck was against them, and that was all there was to it.

The old hands on the team played ball, and the youngsters, on the outfield, were bright particular stars in every respect. In batting, they boasted strong point, the men were strangely weak, Cass striking out twice, Dennis, supposed to be the heaviest hitter on the team, sending up little pop flies to the infield, Sherman failing to make any safe hits at all, and so on through the list.

The grounds were wretched, and in the first inning a costly error or two at critical times, an unusually favorable combination of circumstances for the Albion men, and the fact that they landed heavy on Sherman's pitching, gave them a lead of 11 runs.

The pedagogues rallied in the second inning and henceforth played fine ball, but they could not recover the lost ground. The score: Innings . . . 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 R Albion . . . 11 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 1—16 Normal . . . 1 0 0 0 4 0 0 0 0—5

STRENGTH AND ENDURANCE.

Are features of the greatest success. No person can do full justice to himself without them.

In no season of the year are they more easily exhausted than in the spring.

We need not discuss the reason for this here. It's enough to say there is one, and that Hood's Sarsaparilla gives strength and endurance, as thousands annually testify.

THE CEMENT WALK ORDINANCE

Following is the substance of the ordinance adopted by the council relative to the construction of cement walks in the city:

Section 2. That all sidewalks hereafter constructed or repaired in the city shall be under the direction of the council; and whenever it appears necessary to the council to have any walk graded, constructed or repaired, it may order the street commissioner to cause the same to be done.

Sec. 1. That all sidewalks on Congress st., between the river and Adams st., shall be 15 feet wide; that all on Cross st., between the railroad and Race street, shall be 11 feet, and on all other streets 10 feet.

Sec. 3. All sidewalks hereafter laid in front of any business property shall be of stone flagging or cement concrete, and also in all cases where, by the terms of the ordinance the width shall be more than six feet.

Sec. 7. When the construction of a cement walk shall be ordered by the council or when any property shall build a cement walk, one-third of the expense shall be paid by the city and two-thirds by the abutting property owners.

Any person desiring to construct a cement sidewalk shall make a written application to the council, stating the length, breadth and exact location of the proposed walk, and all applications so made shall be approved, modified or rejected by the council.

All cement walks hereafter constructed in any street shall be constructed by or under the supervision of a competent person selected by the council.

Whenever a cement walk shall have been constructed in accordance with the ordinance, one-third of the expense shall be paid by the city; and thereafter such walk shall be maintained by such owner without expense to the city.

COUNSELLOR "NOT GUILTY"

The Celebrated Horse Driving Case Yesterday

JURY OUT AN HOUR

Under the Evidence There Seems to Have Been a Miscarriage of Justice

That there is no way of determining from the evidence what a jury may do was nicely illustrated Thursday in Justice Childs' court.

After deliberating an hour and a quarter, disagreeing, being sent back by Justice Childs, and debating for another hour, the jury decided yesterday afternoon that Asa Counsellor was not guilty of "willfully, maliciously and wantonly unfeeling and driving away a horse contrary to the provisions of the statute in such cases made and provided."

Geo. DeMosh, of the DeMosh livery, rented a rig to Frank Tuttle to drive about with no particular hour being set for its return. A young man named Asa Counsellor, a fellow of swarthy, Indian-like features, said to be a French Canadian hailing from Springwells, Wayne county, was with Tuttle and they went into Fulton's saloon together. Counsellor left the saloon and the horse was untied, driven furiously to Belleville and finally returned to the barn pretty thoroughly used up. In such condition in fact that it has not been driven since and will not be for some time to come.

Counsellor was arrested first for horse stealing, but yesterday morning the case was discontinued and he was apprehended and brought to trial on statutory grounds.

It appears from a statement of C. M. Warner, city marshal, and Officer Ross, who arrested the man, taking him out of bed, that he in substance admitted everything about the affair excepting that he was drunk and had no intention of stealing the horse. This was conceded and the charge changed as above stated. After efforts to settle the matter had failed, a jury trial was demanded. The jury consisted of Charles F. Comstock, Jabe Wortley, George Witmore, John Kuster, Chas. P. Ferrier and George Olds.

The witnesses heard in the afternoon were George DeMosh, the proprietor of the livery; Frank Tuttle, who rented the horse; Charles Fulton, the saloon-keeper, who saw Counsellor standing near the horse; and Marshal Warner, who assisted in arresting the prisoner.

The people were represented by Prosecuting Attorney John Duffy and the prisoner by Lee N. Brown.

It is reported that there are a score of witnesses at Belleville who saw Counsellor and at least two men who saw him on the way home who could identify him as the man who had the horse at Belleville and that he was in the buggy on the way home. Fulton's testimony was relied upon, however, to establish the fact that Counsellor was the man who untied and drove the horse away. He did not state positively when asked directly if he saw Counsellor drive the rig away that he was sure Counsellor was the man. Later, however, in reply to a question by Prosecutor Duffy, "Was the man who drove the rig away the same man who came into the saloon with Tuttle?" he replied that he was. Now it was established by evidence that Counsellor went into the saloon with Tuttle, but the jury seemed not to be able to put two and two together. Counsellor went into the saloon with Tuttle. The man who went into the saloon with Tuttle drove the rig away. Yet the jury held, although it is said they had no doubt but that Counsellor did drive the horse away, that the fact had not been proven. No witnesses were sworn for the defense or any evidence of any kind introduced, yet the jury said he was not guilty. It is reported that George Olds and John Kuster originally stood for conviction and that Olds did up to the last moment, when he was finally persuaded to vote not guilty.

It is passing strange how such a miscarriage of justice could have resulted under the circumstances, but it is one more bit of accumulative evidence of the crying demand for some change in our jury system.

THE HORSE THIEVES ARE STILL UNCAUGHT

Horse thieves again visited George Hammond in Augusta Saturday night, but were again scared away without accomplishing their purpose. He has a valuable four-year-old colt which was in a box stall that night. His son, Milo, returned from Ypsilanti at 1 o'clock in the morning and on entering the house was asked by his father if the horses were all right. He replied that they were excepting that he had not looked at the colt. He then took a lantern and went out to see if the colt was all right. It was gone. He quickly notified his father and together they began a search. They soon found the animal in a back yard with a halter on. On looking farther they found that a bridle and a new tie strap had been taken. Sunday morning the bridle was found in a field down near the creek together with the strap, which had been fastened to the bit and run through both rings of the bit. The thieves had evidently thrown the bridle away, having no use for it, inasmuch as they did not get the horse. All indications pointed to a purpose to lead the animal away, and the parties undoubtedly knew the horse was not broken to drive single as there was no disturbance of the bugles of which there were three in the barn.

22 BABIES WERE ON EXHIBITION

If such Ypsilanti couples as may be contemplating applying to the stork for an addition to their families had been desirous of inspecting a fine sample line before placing their order with his storkship, they might with profit have visited the Episcopal Parish House, Saturday afternoon, where a "Baby Show" was in operation.

The little morsels of humanity, 22 in number, ranging from 3 months to 2 years in age, sit in their mother's laps or in tiny red chairs, dressed in their best, each bearing a card with its name, and each looking around with wide, wondering eyes upon the throngs of admiring friends and relatives who were volubly complimentary to the proud mothers upon their possessions.

The lower floor of the Parish House was crowded with friends of the little contestants and visitors who had been attracted simply by curiosity, and the scene was one of animation and pleasure. The babies had been arrayed in their most becoming costumes, and their innocence and pretty ways made a charming display.

There were three voting contests—for the prettiest girl baby, for the prettiest boy baby and for the baby with the prettiest eyes; and each vote cost him who cast it 10 cents.

The contests were all close, as the little ones were so uniformly sweet and pretty that it was difficult to rank one above the rest.

The prizes were won as follows: Prettiest girl baby—Vera Vail. Prettiest boy baby—Owen Cleary. Baby with prettiest eyes—David McFarlane.

The contestants were 22 in number and were all as follows: Vera Vail, Owen Cleary, David McFarlane, Elmer Stitt, Esther Hunt, Genevieve Breining, Earl Smith, Myrl Tilman, Marjorie Zuerger, Edward Buxton, Helene Doty, Orpha Dolph, Lorma Sevey, Lucile Titus, Ira Trotter, Irene Trotter, Floya Matthews, Donald Millard, Marian Newton, Virginia Miller, Lestial Peplot, Roy Court.

The total number of votes cast in the first contest was 38, in the second contest 42, and in the third 13.

The Episcopal ladies realized $10 from the enterprise.

CATARRH

Catarrh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system.

Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. T. A. Williams, a leading dry-goods merchant of Spartanburg, S. C., writes: "For years I had a severe case of nasal Catarrh, with all the disagreeable effects which belong to that disease, and which make life painful and unendurable. I used medicines prescribed by leading physicians and suggested by numbers of friends, but without getting any better. Then began to take S. S. S. It had the desired effect, and cured me after taking eighteen bottles. In my opinion S. S. S. is the only medicine now in use that will effect a permanent cure of Catarrh."

is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the greatest of all blood medicines and tonics.

If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases and write our physicians about your case.

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR MISS STRONG

The Grand Rapids Herald has the following in regard to Miss Lilly Strong, the daughter of Prof. E. A. Strong of this city:

"Miss Lilly M. Strong, who has served the Y. W. C. A. so efficiently as its secretary during the past year, handed in her resignation at a meeting of the board yesterday. Miss Strong has been offered the state secretaryship of Pennsylvania, which has ten city and twenty college associations, and it is one of the largest and most important state organizations in the country. Miss Strong's new position will give her a very large field for activity and usefulness, and those acquainted with her work in the past are very certain that Pennsylvania has gained a most worthy and able state secretary."

"Miss Strong came to this city last August, when the organization known as the Woman's Gymnasium association was merging into a Young Woman's Christian association. Things at that time were in a more or less chaotic state, as the old organization was discontinued and the new association not perfect. Miss Strong brought most excellent and sterling character, ability and experience to bear upon the work of completing the organization and superintending its management, and all persons interested in the local Y. W. C. A. sincerely regret her resignation, although they realize her capacity for doing a larger and more important work. She will remain in her present position until the expiration of her year, in August."

THURSDAY, JUNE 13.

DR. PATTON'S PESSIMISM WARRANTED.

President Patton of Princeton in his baccalaureate address to the students of that institution, made a wide departure from the usual scope of such addresses and confined its teachings to the burning issues of the day. This change was made, it seems, on account of the expansion methods, territorial, industrial and military, of the present. These things appear to have created a spirit of pessimism in the worthy president, and it is scarcely surprising that they should produce that effect upon the thoughtful, serious mind of a lover of justice and right. There are many others who have thought along the same lines and are in sympathy with the state of mind which prompted Dr. Patton to say:

"But there is moral issue involved. Great and perplexing moral questions emerge. We ask ourselves if we see the nations armed to the teeth and making war upon weaker nations, whether we are living in the twentieth century of the Christian era." We see that the nations foremost in the service of the Prince of Peace are not studying things that make for peace nor things that wherewith they should edify one another, but are studying the things that make for war and the means by which they may destroy one another."

In the light of the world happenings of the past few years and the present movement the question naturally presents itself to the thoughtful whether the so-called Christian nations are in the sense of the knowledge and enlightenment and understanding of the times, followers of the Prince of Peace. If they are there are all sorts of reasons for the belief that they are such a long way off. From the industrial point of view, greed seems to have taken the place of right and the desire to become supreme in industrialism has too largely eliminated justice from the problem. It matters little who or what is ruined, provided only that industrial supremacy and monopoly are secured. The individual for the establishment of the rights of whom the great conflicts of the 19th century were waged is almost a negligible factor in the warfare of the present. The new century, too, was ushered in by an equally strenuous conflict of arms of the great Christian nations against weaker nations of the world. And the revolting, hideous crimes committed by the Christian soldiery is terrible to contemplate. There is altogether too much truth in the farther statement of President Patton that:

"We rather pride ourselves upon the skill with which we are able to dispatch men, and the exploits of the soldier in the field are told with a flippancy which would indicate among Christian people that the killing of another human being is the simple pastime of the soldier."

The nations are constantly putting more and more of the people's substance into engines of war and our own country has recently authorized the increase of its army four fold. Never before has the world resounded to the tread of so many armed men, and public opinion, or the opinion that controls public affairs, is pretty accurately portrayed in the fact that more honor is shown a Kitchener than a Gladstone. In our own country civic virtue appears to be on the decline and corruption in high places was probably never so marked as at present. The control of our industries by trusts has a marked tendency to further and strengthen these ends. There is a diffusion of material comforts today more general than ever before, but these things seem not to be making for the development of higher virtue. And so these farther words of President Patton appear to have too much of truth in them:

"There is at present a larger measure of emotional morality and a smaller measure of intellectual morality than formerly. Men more fully recognize the law of love, but they less generously heed the law of right. There is an increasing desecration of the Sabbath. There is heedlessness of plain obligation. Good form means more to a man than that this is commanded 'thus saith the Lord.' There is a gradual decadence of the sense of sin and belief in it. There are facts that stare you in the face every day, and when you read of them they do not surprise or depress you, because you are calloused to them."

Subscribers who pay one dollar in advance to the Sentinel-Commercial will be given a map of Michigan and the world worth a dollar.

Our protective tariff was framed, as claimed, as claimed by its friends, to develop our infant industries and control the home market by keeping out the pauper made goods of Europe. Well, these infants have become giants, they have been given the absolute control of the home market and during the past year reached out into foreign markets, in spite of trade restrictions, and did $2,300,000,000 worth of business. Protectionists now admit that our extreme tariff schedules curtail and harass foreign trade as democrats have always claimed. The recent meeting of the Manufacturers' association in Detroit has shown that there is a large part of the body who believe in the lessening of duties and greater freedom of trade and President McKinley has announced himself in favor of reciprocal trade agreements. All acknowledge that a lessening of the duties would greatly enlarge our foreign trade, yet the extreme protectionists still insist that the people shall pay tribute to the billion dollar steel trust and the other great trust organizations which practically monopolize the trade in their lines. The fact that the American people pay more, because of the protective tariff for articles made right here at home than the foreigner pays for them after they have been shipped thousands of miles, makes no difference with these government aided relatives of the hog family. They still hold that the steel trust, although its profits are so enormous that it can ship its products to the other side of the earth and still sell them at much less than they demand for them at the place of manufacture, must have the aid of government to keep up its profits. They want the foreign trade, are able to sell cheap enough to get considerable of it, but still demand their pound of flesh from the American consumer through legislation. Retaliation by the other nations of the world and the desire of the trust interests to increase their foreign trade is likely to bring about, however, what will never be granted to justice and right.

The Protective Tariff League wants Representative Babcock read out of the republican party for his so-called free trade ideas in wanting the tariff removed from articles which are controlled by a monopoly. He will hardly be so disposed of, however, for the evidence would then be conclusive that the republican party is in the closest league with the trust monopolies. But it will be interesting to watch this great fight within the party for a removal of these duties. Those who stand against Babcock believe these protective duties should be retained for protection's sake alone. The industries referred to have no need for them and there is no revenue for the government in them yet these extremists insist they should remain for no purpose only to swell the profits of the sugar trust, the tobacco trust and the steel trust. Mr. Babcock is borrowing no fears over what these people desire to have done with him.

Lots of noisy partisans just now are busy trying to explain why it is that with tariff on wool at 12 cents a pound it is bringing only 10 cents to 15 cents a pound in the markets of the U. S. Twelve cent tariff, and 15 cent wool is an object lesson for farmers that ought to furnish them with sense, if not with cents.—Adrian Press.

SLEEPING CARS ON ELECTRIC ROADS

A. Foote of Jackson, who was the main figure in building the power dam near Allegan and has been interested in the Kalamazoo, Battle Creek and Boland roads, predicts to the Evening Telegraph of Kalamazoo that within two years sleeping cars and dining cars will be run on the electric road between Detroit and Chicago. He says several routes west of Kalamazoo are now being considered, and that when all the links from Detroit to Chicago are completed they will be consolidated.

The men perfecting the grade of the Boland railway between Chelsea and Grass Lake Thursday reached the western portion of Chelsea, and are now working in the village limits. Mr. Boland has recently purchased a private right of way through a portion of the village which will take him off of one street and shorten and straighten his route to a considerable extent.

PROF. F. L. YORK IN A CHURCH ROW

Prof. F. L. York, instructor on the organ in the Normal Conservatory, has resigned his position as organist of Christ's church, Detroit, as the result of mutual disagreement between him and a certain faction in the church. Says Prof. York in regard to the situation:

"For some time past rumor after rumor has reached my ears to the effect that I was not giving satisfaction to some of the congregation. This would again be offset by praise from other quarters. However, inasmuch as I had contemplated resigning for a long time, I decided to do so about the first of May, and give the dissatisfied ones an opportunity to make any changes they desired without first going through the unpleasant necessity of getting rid of me.

"The rector, Rev. Dr. Maxon and myself part good friends so far as I know, as the doctor has always spoken well of my work, and only a few days since complimented me upon the good discipline, as well as the singing on my boys."

Prof. York is one of the finest organists in this part of the country, and his leaving under the present circumstances reflects discredit upon the musical taste of the dissenting factions and not upon his own ability.

An Honest Tired Feeling

There is an "honest tired feeling," caused by necessary toil and cured by natural rest.

But very different is "that tired feeling," from which so many complain and which may even be classed as a disease.

That tired feeling takes you to bed tired and wakes you up tired.

You have no appetite, have bilious taste, dull headache, are nervous and irritable, blue, weak and discouraged.

In such conditions Hood's Sarsaparilla does a world of good.

It begins in the right place—in the blood, purifying it and imparting vitality, then its tonic effect is felt by the stomach, kidneys and liver; appetite comes back, all waste is removed naturally, headaches cease, that tired feeling departs and you feel like a new person.

This has been the experience of thousands.

It will be yours if you take

The M. E. church was fairly represented at Willis at the quarterly meeting services, but a greater number attended the Children's Day services at the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

Lucinda Francis, who has been staying with friends near Oakville, has returned home.

The Aid society of the Willis M. E. church met at the Stony Creek parsonage and entertained the ladies of the Aid society of this place on Wednesday of this week.

Children's Day services will be held at the M. E. church next Sunday at 10:30 a. m.

There will be no services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

H. P. Thompson has erected about 95 rods of coiled spring wire fence along the highway. It presents a fine appearance.

The skimming station closed up for one day this week on account of a breakdown.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The Stitch Exchange will not meet again until fall.

The sewing school holds a picnic Saturday at 3 in Prospect park, if it does not rain. All the children that have attended the school this winter are invited to come, bring their mothers and their supplies.

The annual meeting is to be held Friday at 8 o'clock. It is hoped that all the members in town will be present as officers are to be elected. The year closes with this meeting and the treasurer wishes all dues to be paid by that date without further solicitation.

Born, June 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters, a son. Mrs. Walters is getting along nicely.

Louis Wilcox of Milan was in Willis last week buying horses.

Some sneaky thief stole three sugar cured hams out of Arthur Coe's granary one week ago last Sunday, during Mr. and Mrs. Coe's absence from home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Webster and Miss Annie Greenman of Ypsilanti made C. H. Greenman and family a very pleasant call last Sunday.

Mrs. Carrie DeMosh of Ypsilanti was visiting her brother, Charlie Hammond, one day last week.

People in this region are fixing all sorts of contrivances to catch horse thieves—buying revolvers, shot guns and some setting those large bear traps with spurs on the jaws, others are setting guns (although it is against the law to do so) but it seems as if a man ought to be permitted to protect his property in his own way.

The Lady Maccabees of Willis have initiated three new members last Saturday, assisted by Mrs. Mills of Ann Arbor, lady deputy great commander of the L. O. T. M.

Walter R. Mason, our supervisor, raised a new barn week before last.

Andrew Campbell of Pittsfield called on friends in this town a few days ago.

John M. Greenman, who is at work in Ypsilanti, spent last Sunday at home.

THE NEW WOMAN.

Mrs. Rose Parker.

Mrs. Rose Parker, President William Downs Woman's Relief Corps No. 48, also chaplain Northwestern Legion of Honor, writes from 2419 Central avenue, Minneapolis, Minn., as follows:

"For several years I suffered with a severe backache, and constant dragging pains. Some doctors gave it one name and some another, but none gave relief. Several of my friends urged me to try Peruna, so I was finally persuaded to try it and the first bottle brought blessed relief. I have used it off and on for three years. It keeps me in excellent health."

Dr. Rachel A. Magaw, 67 W. Jefferson street, Springfield, O., says: "Your Peruna is worth its weight in gold. I feel like a new woman."

The coming of what is known as the "new woman" in our country is not greeted by everyone as if she were a great blessing. But there is another new woman whom everybody is glad to see. Every day some invalid woman is exclaiming, "I have been made a new woman by Dr. Hartman's home treatment." It is only necessary to send name, address, symptoms, duration of sickness and treatment already received to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O., and directions for one month's treatment will be promptly forwarded. The medicines can be obtained at the nearest drug store.

Rafes to Buffalo and return by way of the Windsor, Detroit and Buffalo line of steamers is $3. Steamers leave Detroit every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. These trip tickets are good for six days.

B. S. Boyce has purchased the ice and ice houses of Alex. Macomson & Co. of Detroit, formerly owned by John Terns, and will take the ice here and is now ready for business. Telephone No. 51.

Three Ypsilanti women were granted divorces in the circuit court Saturday as follows: Catherine Reddaway vs. Edward Reddaway, Maude Brogan vs. William Brogan, Sarah Ensign vs. Marshall Ensign.

The Daughters of the American Revolution, who were to have met Saturday, June 15, have postponed their meeting until June 22 and will be entertained as previously arranged by Mrs. J. A. Watling.

Warren Smith, well known as a partner with his father, Frank Smith, in the drug business, has been elected principal of the Flint high school for the coming year. He has not yet definitely decided to accept.

B. J. Hausmer has not forgotten how to land big fish and has opened the season by catching an 8-pound pickerel. He will no doubt get some big ones before the season is over if no one discourages this kind of items.

Aegis Council, No. 117, Royal Arcanum has just paid Mrs. J. M. B. Still $3,000, the amount of the insurance carried in the order by the late J. M. B. Still. Aegis Council has distributed $58,000 in this community since its organization.

At the Field Day contest at hillsdale Saturday afternoon, Edmonds of the Normal threw the 16-lb. hammer 113 1/2 feet, which breaks the Intercollegiate record by 18 feet. This is the only consolation the Normalites can derive from the meet.

The Normal choir will give their annual summer concert in Normal hall Monday evening, June 24. Bruch's "Fair Ellen" and Schumann's "The Gypsies" to constitute the program. The choir will be assisted by the Mendelssohn quartet of Detroit.

The following program of events will be given at the bicycle races at the Fair Grounds Saturday, June 22: One-eighth mile, professional, half-mile amateur, one mile open, one mile country, one mile handicap, two-mile handicap, five-mile handicap.

The Alpha Sigma Zeta will give the first lawn social of the season next Friday evening, June 14, on the lawn of Mr. Daschner, 616 Pearl street. Ice cream and cake will be served to everyone who brings 10 cents with them. Music while you eat.

John Miller of Waterman's studio and Miss Lucile Moulton of Buchanan were married June 5, by Rev. Wm. S. Potter, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde V. Andrews, 218 1/2 Marshall street, Battle Creek. Only a few intimate friends were present. The bride was doubly gowned in Persian lawn with garnitures of white lace and ribbon. Both are well known here as former students of the Normal.

A surprise party was given on Herbert Peabody of 517 Ellis street Tuesday, the occasion being his birthday.

Mrs. Cornelia Cornwell has presented the societies of St. Luke's church with a fine set of china soup bowls.

The friends of W. B. Jansen in Ypsilanti will be pleased to learn that he has been appointed assistant to the president of the Atchison & Santa Fe railroad. He will have charge of the president's office and of the coal properties of the company. His headquarters will be in Chicago.

A bicycle meet will be held on the Fair Grounds Saturday afternoon, June 22, at which several first-class races will be pulled off, one to be a one-eighth mile professional race, in which to qualify the riders must beat the record of 20.15 seconds made on the Ypsilanti track by Barney Oldfield of Toledo.

John Everett, an Ypsilanti high school and a Normal graduate, at present a student at the U. of M., has been appointed principal of the Pontiac high school, and Miss Nellie Burk, a former assistant in the department of German and French at the Normal, now at the U. of M., will teach in Western College, Oxford, O., next year.

First Presbyterian church, Washington street, corner of Emmett, Robert K. Wharton, minister. Morning worship next Sunday at 10:30 with sermon; evening worship at 7:30 with sermon; Sunday school at 12 m.; young people's worship at 6:30 in the evening. The people's service held Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. If not going elsewhere you are cordially invited to these services.

Next week Mr. John Dodge will be home from Hillsdale and will proceed at once to work up his opera, "Sleeping Beauty." The fact that a native born Ypsilanti is going to give an original opera makes the coming event of more than ordinary interest. Mr. Dodge has always done what he could to please the public and the encouragement he is receiving shows his efforts will be appreciated.

The next meeting of the Ypsilanti Sunday School association will be held in the Congregational church next Thursday evening, June 13, at 7:30 local time. The topic for discussion is "Attendance, Punctuality and Summer Attendance." Prominent Sunday school workers will address the association. Everyone interested in Sunday school work, especially parents, are earnestly invited to attend. This will be the last meeting until after the summer vacation.

The Normal co-eds who attended the Intercollegiate at Hillsdale were so disappointed at the showing made by the ball team that when it became evident that the pedagogues had lost all chance of winning against Albion, tears rolled down the cheeks of more than one. Those who happened to be near say it was a most pathetic sight to see the girls bravely waving their flags to encourage their already vanquished champions, while the big salt drops splashed down on their shirt waists or to the ground.

The Study Club closed a most interesting and successful year's work on Wednesday, June 5. The Club were the guests of Mrs. Lizzie Swaine at her hospitable home, corner of Forest avenue and River street. The program consisted of the annual reports of the various officers, followed by music, both vocal and instrumental. At the close of the program all adjourned to the spacious piazza where strawberries and assorted cakes were charmingly served by Misses Jessie Swaine and Grace Guerin. Before leaving a vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Swaine for entertaining the club and its guests in such a delightful manner.

PROGRAM FOR COMMENCEMENT WEEK

ANNUAL REPORT OF MRS. FLORINE YOST

Following are extracts from the annual report of Mrs. Florine Yost, secretary of the Ypsilanti Home association, printed on the request of many members of the association:

"In giving you a report of our work for the year it may seem indeed small in comparison with what might have been accomplished, yet our ladies have toiled uncomplainingly, regardless of the weather, and in some instances have realized that their efforts have been appreciated. With the exception of October, owing to not having quorum present, the usual monthly meetings have been held. Whole numbers present during the year was 120. The largest attendance was at the July meeting, which was 19. The smallest 8. The average attendance has been 10. The roll shows a membership of 40. By full consent at the May meeting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sweet were made honorary members of the association. Owing to some changes made, and by death it was found necessary to fill the vacancies in the executive committee, which is as follows: First ward, Mrs. E. M. Spencer and Mrs. S. J. Wilcox; second ward, Frank Smith and George Gaudy; third ward, H. M. Briggs and Charles McCormack; fourth ward, S. L. Shaw and William Cheshire; fifth ward, Lura Parsons and E. P. Wortley. At the Union thanksgiving services held in the Presbyterian church the collection amounted to $32, while the collection in the Episcopal church alone was $31.25, making a total of $63.25. A gift from the Pearl street Reading club of a new comfortable was received in December and acknowledged by a vote of thanks from the association. Shaw reported a cash donation of $7.25 at the January meeting, and a gift of $5 was received from C. W. Rogers and friends, also at the January meeting. Soon after our last meeting we were indeed saddened by the death of one who was present a year ago, Mrs. Redner. She had been a member of the Home association for 30 years or more; always faithful in her devotion to its interests and ever ready to lend a helping hand to the sick and the sorrowing. Unostentatious in all her Christian work, it was performed in the spirit of the Master.

Our city was startled on the morning of Aug. 28 by the announcement that Mrs. N. B. Perkins had passed away. The committee appointed by our president, consisting of Mesdames H. E. Dickinson, E. M. Spencer, M. Smith, in their loving words expressed the esteem in which Mrs. Perkins is held by the association, and voiced the society in the willingness of Mrs. Perkins to serve when and wherever needed. She was always a cheerful, willing helper; one who would never shirk from any service assigned her, and the remembrance of her bright and cheerful life will always remain with us in recalling her to mind."

The Normal will probably lose one of its oldest instructors, as Prof. C. T. McFarlane, head of the department of geography and drawing, has been elected principal of the Brockport, N. Y., Normal, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. David Eugene Smith, a former Normal instructor, who has been appointed to a chair in Columbia University.

Prof. McFarlane had not returned from Brockport last night, so no official statement could be obtained in regard to whether or not he will accept the offer, but inasmuch as the principalship with its $3,000 a year salary and excellent opportunities for further advancement in the educational profession, is a decided step above a professorship at Ypsilanti, it is a safe conjecture that the Normal will soon be mourning the loss of one of its most able men.

Prof. McFarlane came to the Normal eight years ago from Naugatuck, N. J., where he occupied a position as instructor in drawing and geography, and he immediately made his presence felt in the college as a fine teacher and an authority in his subject. His departure will leave a gap in the teaching force of the Normal which the board of education will have great difficulty in filling.

The Brockport, N. Y., Normal seems to be the evil genius of the Ypsilanti institution, as three years ago it appropriated Dr. D. E. Smith, professor in mathematics; last year it took Prof. Jackson, Dr. Smith's successor in the mathematical department, and now it makes a descent upon Prof. McFarlane.

The friends of the Normal will hope against hope that Prof. McFarlane will conclude that he does not care to remove to New York state, on account of the climate or the water, or some other equally weighty reason.

HOW TO ECONOMIZE.

SOME men economize so closely on the number of words in a telegram that the receiver can not understand it. This is not sensible economy. Neither is it sensible economy to ruin garments of value with cheap soap or powerful chemicals that eat into the fabric. True economy uses Ivory Soap in the laundry. It is the most of pure soap that can be sold for the money. Chemically it is as innocent as water. Yet it does everything you can ask of a soap. Try it!

PHATS AND LEANS PLAY BALL TODAY

The phats and leans will have an exciting game on the Fair Grounds this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Great care has been exercised by Capt. O'Connor and Ned Horner in selecting their respective teams, and the contest will be a close one.

The teams will consist of the following well-known ball players:

Phats—Charles O'Connor (captain), A. A. Graves, W. B. Harding, D. P. Sullivan, J. Hammersmith, Edward Lawrence, Dr. Hull, John McCann, Ald. George Gaudy, Marshal C. M. Warner.

Leans—Ned Horner (captain); Clark Whitcomb, Frank Arms, Elain Samson, William Reader, Clarence Corbett, Rev. Frank Kennedy, Ald. Van Fossen, Harry Gilmore, Clem Pennington.

THE DEPARTMENT WAS KEPT BUSY

Just after midnight Tuesday the fire department was called to the east side, where a fire had got under pretty thorough headway in a barn at the old Follett residence on North River street nearly opposite the Michigan Central depot. The building was not occupied and everything about it was as dry as tinder. It was old and the shingles were loose and as they burned they were carried through the air several rods. The department was kept busy preventing the house on the same lot and one east of the barn from taking fire. The barn was pretty thoroughly burned, except portions of the frame.

BIGGEST SHOW IN THE WORLD

The amusement-loving people of this city will shortly have an opportunity to see the largest and most complete circus, menagerie and hippodrome ever organized in the United States. Ringling Brothers' Circus will exhibit in Ann Arbor again Saturday, June 29, and one of the biggest crowds of the year may confidently be looked for. Ringling Brothers' great show has come to be regarded as not only the most colossal amusement institution of modern times, but also as the very highest type of the twentieth century circus. Some idea of the size and scope of the exhibition can be gained from the fact that five trains of double length railroad cars are required to transport it from city to city, while the performances are given in three rings, upon two stages, in mid-air and upon an immense hippodrome racing track, under an enormous canvas pavilion so vast that all the other circuses in American could be gathered, without crowding, under its colossal dome. The menagerie is the most complete zoological collection in America, the hippodrome is an actual reproduction of the exciting contests of old Rome, and the arenic performance is so vastly superior to anything ever before seen in this country as to create a distinct departure in this form of popular entertainment. The acrobats, gymnasts, aerialists, riders and other specialists number three hundred of the highest-salaried European and American artists, including the great Garcinetti Troupe of nine acrobats from Italy; the Holloway Trio of high-wire acrobats; the Feeley Family of gymnasts; the Wartenberg Brothers, globe jugglers and equilibrists; the three Marvelles, grotesque acrobats and barrel-vaulters; Alvo, Boise and Picard, absolute masters of the aerial bars; the Flying Fishers, the seven famous DaComas, lady and gentleman acrobats who perform the most amazing and difficult feats in evening costume; the Alpine Sisters, novel, acrobatic stars; thirty riders, including Amelia Feeley, the greatest lady rider the world has ever produced; John Rooney, the world's champion somersault equestrian and a long roster of other clever, high-salaried performers. Special attention has been given this season to trained animal displays. Ringling Brothers' new elephant sensation, in which twenty of these big brutes perform together at one time in one ring; Lockhardt's famous comedy elephants and O'Brien's wonderful sixty-one horse act are all features of impressive novelty and interest. The performance is introduced with a magnificent spectacle, illustrating the splendors of imperial pageantry in the Roman year one, and closes with a stupendous revival of the ancient hippodrome. Circus day will be inaugurated with a superb street display, in which the processional resources of the great show will be exhibited free upon the public streets. The parade is entirely new this season, and surpasses anything in the way of pageantry ever before attempted. The show now exhibits the only giraffe known to exist.

HORSE THEIVES DO NOT DESIST IN THEIR WORK

George Jarvis, who lives south of the city and just east of the Geo. H. Hammond farm, is the latest victim of horse thieves. Friday night, it is thought about 11 o'clock, he had a horse, carriage, harness and robes stolen from his barn and there is no clue to the thieves so far as known at present. The horse stolen is a large bay, weighing 1300 pounds. The animal has a white spot on its nose. There is also a slight enlargement on one of its hind legs.

Officers traced the rig about two miles south of Willis and then lost all trace of the animal. The members of the Vigilance association were largely in evidence yesterday, and several of them are on the trail, but no discoveries have yet been made farther than stated above. The thieves appear to be somewhat partial to the horses or members of the Vigilance association.

This makes the third effort during the week two of which have been successful. Sunday night a horse belonging to John L. Hunter was stolen. It was traced to Toledo and there lost all trace. Tuesday night an effort was made to steal a horse and rig at the farm of George N. Hammond. The thieves were discovered as they were hitching the animal up and fled. No arrests have yet been made, although it is understood there are strong suspicions in at least one case.

ST. LUKE'S BOYS WON A CLOSE GAME

The St. Luke's choir boys defeated the Putnam avenue base ball team of Detroit Saturday afternoon by a score of 25 to 24. Frier played a fine game behind the bat. Denike pitched the first five innings. He pitched a fine game, striking out seven men—three in the first inning and one each in the second, third fourth and fifth. Thompson played a good game at first base, making only three errors. Shuts put up a fine game at second, putting out four men and having no errors. Smith put up a poor game at third in the third inning, letting in four runs. He made two good catches and had nine errors. Fairchild, at short for the first five innings, accepted two chances out of three, having two errors—missing a swift grounder and making a wild pitch. Wortley, at left field, put up a good game except in the ninth, when he missed a fly. One error. Miller at center played a fine game, making a running catch in the eighth which prevented a round of applause from both sides. Clarke, Braisted and Bomeheart, at right field, put a good game. Bomeheart had three errors while Clarke and Braisted had none. Braisted played the first three, Clarke the second three and Bomeheart the last three innings. Clarke, played for Bomeheart in the eighth as Bomeheart received a hit in the temple which prevented him from playing. Score:

GREAT WORLD RACE.

Statements of American Boys in the International Contest.

HAPPY AND DETERMINED TO WIN.

Each of the Yankee Schoolboys Means to Finish the Trip in the Shortest Possible Time and Gain All the Advantage He Can From It.

Here are the statements of the three American schoolboys who are competitors in the great international race around the world just started. They are being sent by three well known newspapers to test the new routes that now girdle the earth.

Louis St. Clair Eanson, who takes the trip for the New York Journal, says:

"This thing has come upon me so suddenly that I hardly know what to say about it. I have not fully realized it yet. All the boys in high school are my friends, and I am sure they will congratulate me on my good luck. I shall do my best to describe things for The Journal and for my schoolmates as I go along, but I suppose it will be such a hustle that adequate description will be a hard matter.

"I purpose keeping in communication with my schoolmates. I do not fear the trip at all. I have traveled to Texas once or twice alone when years younger than I am now. I have also been to Wisconsin. All I want is a fair start to beat the record. But no matter how fast I go I shall find time to take in everything about me and to put it down in my diary.

"The German, Frenchman and Englishman know just how they will travel. I do not know anything about it. I only know that I shall get there as quickly as they do if I start even. In any event, I shall not give up if I have to walk. I mean to be a mining engineer when I return, and the hard knocks will do me good. I want to thank The Journal for selecting me. I will try to repay their confidence by doing all they may require."

Charles C. Fitzmorris, who will represent Hearst's Chicago American, when seen at Fort Wayne the other day, said:

"At last I am fairly started on the most wonderful journey of the age. I am rushing out into the world at the rate of 60 miles an hour. We have started to girdle the earth in something less than the time Verne's hero made.

"Now, and only now, do I begin to appreciate the munificence of Hearst's Chicago American. On the finest train running out of Chicago we are passengers and with the best of everything that money and good will can procure are made comfortable and happy.

"Happy? Who wouldn't be happy to take the voyage on which I have started? I am proud of the confidence reposed in me and happy, immensely so, at the prospect of a trip around the world. I am all the more grateful for this opportunity in that it will give me a chance to observe and think so as to fit me for my future life work.

"I think I realize how much the trip means and what a chance I have to learn. I am going to do my utmost to take all the advantage in it. I will not say I will beat all my competitors, but I will say that if I do not it will not be because of anything a Chicago boy has left undone. I thought I had traveled in great style before because I had been in a sleeping car once, but this train beats everything I've ever dreamed of."

William Clark Crittenden, who will represent the San Francisco Examiner, said:

"I am overjoyed at the prospect of making this trip around the globe. I have always intended to make such a journey, but did not think I would make it in any such quick time. We Californians are not in the habit of letting anybody get ahead of us in the fight for world's records, and I am confident that my time will not be longer than that of my rivals.

"Geography has always been a favorite study of mine, and this unprecedented opportunity to see the waters and the countries that I am so familiar with on maps delights me more than I can tell. I cannot realize that I am the lucky one. Nothing has ever happened to me that gave me as much satisfaction as this honor conferred upon me by my teachers. I will do all in my power to justify their kind opinion of my abilities and live up to the honor that has been done me.

"My eyes will be open to see all the wonderful things along the way, and I will never go to sleep during the journey without regretting that I must miss something. I will certainly do all an American boy can do to make the circle of the earth in the shortest possible time."

The other contestants in the international race around the world are two Frenchmen—namely Gaston Stiegler, editor of the Paris Matin, and Henri Truot, editor of the Paris Journal.

General Botha Had to Catch a Train.

The following anecdote is sent to the London Mail by an officer serving in the Transvaal, where it has gone the rounds of the camps. It naturally lacks official confirmation; but, happily, this does not affect its merits as a story. "They tell a story of Botha and Kitchener's meeting about terms of peace a short time ago. At the end Botha said, 'Well, I must be going.' Kitchener replied, 'No hurry; you have not got to catch a train.' 'But that's just what I have got to do,' said Botha, and two days afterward a train was held up and looted on the Delagoa line not very far from the place of meeting."

Teething Babies WITH Coated Tongues

Feverish, fretful, constipated, colicky, should immediately be given that pure, safe, sweet, gentle

Laxakola
THE GREAT TONIC LAXATIVE.

It is the best and most effective laxative for children. BEST because it is safe and made entirely of harmless ingredients. BEST because it is non-irritating and never grips or causes pain or irritation. BEST because it is sure and never fails. BEST because "Children like it and ask for it."

It is a dangerous thing to give little babies violent remedies that rack and rend their little bodies. DON'T DO IT—give them Laxakola. For constipation, coated tongue, simple colds and fevers it is invaluable.

LADIES.—Laxakola acts as a tonic to the whole female system, strengthening the organs and purifying the blood. It will cure the most confirmed case of constipation. With your bowels and stomach free from refuse and impurities, and your blood pure and rich, backaches, headaches, weak nerves, blotchy, muddy, sallow complexions will vanish, and you will feel and look strong, healthy and vigorous. At druggists, 25c. and 50c., or free sample of THE LAXAKOLA CO., 132 Nassau St., N. Y., or 350 Dearborn St., Chicago.

PATEE CREST BICYCLES

Never send a Boy to Mill. Come Yourself, and see the Patee Motor Cycle. It's a Wonder.

are built by the only independent factory in the United States. They are not connected with any trust nor are they a part of the great "Anti-Trust Combine" which is more of a trust than the trust itself. They are thoroughly independent and progressive. They are also the only factory in the U. S. who have enlarged their plant in the past three years, and they have more than doubled their. These facts alone are worth remembering.

STATE SOLONS' WORK

New Laws Enacted by the Forty-First Legislature of Michigan.

TAXATION OF RAILROADS, ETC.

Bills Which Have Been Vetoed by Governor Bliss—The Appropriation Bills.

The regular session of the Forty-first legislature of Michigan will end Thursday noon, June 6, although all business was suspended shortly after noon last Wednesday, May 29. The session commenced on the first Wednesday in January as provided in the constitution, and was eighteen days shorter than the regular session of two years ago. This shortening of the session resulted in a saving of $18,000, as compared with the figures of 1899, the cost of running the legislature under the modern system being about $1,000 per day.

The Most Important Law. In all probability the most important law enacted by the present legislature is the statute providing for the taxation of the property of railroads, express, fast freight, car loaning, refrigerator car and union depot and station companies on an ad valorem basis. Inasmuch as laws of two years ago repealing the special charters of certain railroad companies will not become operative until next year, the first assessment of railroad and other property on the new basis cannot be made until 1903. In order that the tax commission may have ample time in which to perform this duty in addition to the other duties devolving upon it in the line of enforcing the tax laws generally, the membership of that body has been increased from three to five. While this act may not include all the corporations that should be covered by it, it is certainly a long step in the direction of equal taxation demanded by the people, and can readily be added to as experience warrants.

Bills That Have Been Vetoed. Since the compilation of the appended enumeration of bills, (which by the way, includes measures still in the hands of Governor Bliss, who, under the constitution, has five days after the final adjournment of the legislature to either approve or pocket veto bills passed during the last five days of the session) the executive has vetoed bills providing for the establishment of an additional normal school; providing a new charter for the city of Jackson; the Lowry-Ward act exempting real estate mortgages from taxation; the bill authorizing supervisors to charge the cost of handling contagious diseases to the townships, villages or cities, instead of to counties at large; increasing the salary of state salt inspector to $2,000 per year; authorizing the state board of education to prescribe the courses of study for the several normal schools, and issue certificates to teach as it may direct. It is not believed that any more bills will be vetoed, unless it is the one legalizing the special assessment for sewers in Highland Park village. Following are new laws enacted by the legislature:

Elections. Amending the general registration law so that registration shall take place on the third Tuesday and Wednesday before any spring or fall election; providing for the election of city assessors in St. Clair; amending the term of school commissioner in Wayne county to commence July 1 and continue for four years; providing for the selection of candidates for election by popular vote in Grand Rapids; providing for the manner of conducting elections in Calumet township, Houghton county; amending the village incorporation law relative to boards of registration; amending act of 1877 dividing townships and villages into election districts; providing for the registration of electors and manner of holding elections in city of East Tawas; repealing act of 1891 requiring candidates to file sworn statements of election expenses; abolishing secret ballots in political conventions in Kent county; amending section 4, act 149, laws 1895, providing for election of board county canvassers; increasing pay of election inspectors, etc., in Springwells township, Wayne county; creating a voting precinct in Ingalls township, Menominee county; providing for registration of electors in Saginaw county; creating voting precinct in Rockland township, Ontonagon county; providing for election of Wayne county auditors by people instead of by supervisors.

PRESIDENT O'CONNELL

RE-ELECTED CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF MACHINISTS.

PROGRESS OF THE STRIKE IN DETROIT AND OTHER PLACES.

BIG CONFERENCE OF NATIONAL METAL TRADES ASSOCIATION.

Detroit, June 12.—Besides money from the international union funds have been dropping in from other sources, making the union stronger financially than when the strike began. The international union, it is reported, taxes the working members 50 cents a week, but the local also collects an assessment.

The latest firm to take the men back to work is the Fulton iron works. "Two more firms would immediately pay the scale if they had not been threatened with loss of custom by the manufacturers' association," said Business Agent Gore. "Isn't this a proper subject for an injunction, as well as against our pickets?"

Toronto, June 12.—At yesterday's session of the International Machinists' association President O'Connell was re-elected. The others elected were: First vice-president, J. Conlin, Sioux City; second vice-president, A. W. Holmes, Toronto; third vice-president, George Mulbury, Chicago; fourth vice-president, Thomas Wilson, Cheyenne, Wyo.; fifth vice-president, A. Lands, Hartford, Conn.; general secretary and treasurer, George Preston, Detroit, re-elected.

JAMES O'CONNELL.

Executive board: Lon Church, Chicago; E. L. Looker, Washington; Henry Garrett, Atlanta, Ga.; M. J. Ford, New York; James Reynolds, Cleveland, Editor; D. D. Douglass Wilson, Birmingham, Ala., re-elected. Delegates to the convention of American Federation of Labor at Scranton in December: James O'Connell, Washington; J. J. Creamer, Richmond, Va.; John J. Keena, Chicago; George H. Warner, New York.

Milwaukee was decided upon as the meeting place for next convention two years hence. The proposition to remove headquarters from Washington was voted down. After installation of officers the convention adjourned. The delegates will leave for home today, but grand lodge officers will remain in Toronto till Thursday.

Saginaw, Mich., June 12.—The strike situation here looks more serious than ever. The Pere Marquette shops are tied up. All machinists' employers in the city remain firm in their determination not to yield to the demands of the men. An official in the trainmen's union is responsible for the statement that all Pere Marquette trainmen will strike soon in sympathy with the machinists.

New York, June 12.—About 300 representatives of the metal trades held a conference here at the call of the National Metal Trades' association. The session was held behind closed doors. President Reynolds gave out a lengthy statement of the position of the association as to the machinists' strike, which was prepared by the administration counsel. The statement reviews the Chicago agreement as to arbitration made in March, 1900, and accuses the machinists of violating it. It also charges that the machinists wilfully misconducted and misrepresented the agreement of May, 1900.

A great number of new firms were accepted as members of the association. In order to have the firms they represented admitted to the association the delegates had to sign an application in which they subscribed to the following conditions:

1. In consideration of fair dealing being a cardinal principle of the association, we pledge ourselves to protect any of our fellow members who may require our support against any unjust demands of labor organizations and to endeavor to settle all disputes amicably.

2. We bind ourselves to obey the constitution and by-laws and all proper rules made in conformity with the same; provided they do not conflict with the constitution of the United States or the state in which we do business.

Sharon, Pa., June 12.—The Shenango Machine Co. late yesterday afternoon signed the agreement submitted several weeks ago by the machinists' union and the strikers will return to work. There has been no trouble at the Sharon company's steel works. About 20 men are expected here today to fill the strikers' places.

Toledo, O., June 12.—The Baker Bros. Machine Co. have signed the machinists' scale and 60 machinists employed by the company have returned to work.

NEEDS BRACING UP

Great Britain Needs It in New Industrial Problems.

London, June 11.—Robert P. Porter, speaking before the Chesterfield chamber of commerce on "The epidemic of industrial pessimism in the United Kingdom," said:

"It is extremely doubtful whether the United States are prepared now to compete in the markets of the world in manufacture except in iron and steel machinery and the coarser grades of cotton goods. The tariff indicates that American economists and statesmen do not believe the United States are yet able to take an industrial position by the side of Great Britain."

Mr. Porter expressed the opinion that Great Britain's backwardness in electrical science was "due to the lack of enterprise," and he said that Great Britain "needs bracing up in new, not old, industrial problems."

"Those who argue that Great Britain's commercial supremacy is at an end because the value of American exports or the total of the foreign commerce of the United States exceeds Great Britain's for one year," continued Mr. Porter, "might find the argument upset by the first bad harvest. Many complicated economic problems must be faced in the United States. The magnitude of American undertakings may be impressive, but these have corresponding dangers."

"In spite of European mutterings there is little likelihood of a combined European tariff war against the United States because the nations concerned are so hopelessly involved in tariff conflicts between themselves. Great Britain's free trade policy may have injured her home industries, but it has strengthened her foreign trade. On the other hand the United States are finding considerable difficulty, both at home and abroad in negotiating commercial treaties."

Y. M. C. A. AT BOSTON.

Delegates Present From All Over the Civilized World.

Boston, June 11.—Streaming into Boston from nearly every quarter of the globe came delegates to the semi-centennial and international jubilee convention of the Y. M. C. A. of North America. Practically every civilized country in the world will be represented today when the convention is called to order in the exhibition hall of the Mechanics' building, and confidence is expressed that there will be nearly 5,000 delegates from different associations in attendance during the six days the convention is in session.

Those who reached here yesterday afternoon scarcely paused to shake the dust of travel from their clothes before appearing at the headquarters, where a large force of officials was ready to assign suitable boarding places and attend to the needs of the visitors. Not a delegate left the building without a thorough inspection of the jubilee exhibit in one of the large halls of Mechanics' building. This consists of photographs of Y. M. C. A. camps, athletic teams, gymnasiums and diagrams of work done in bible study, sent by associations in all sections of the country. Awards of merit, consisting of blue ribbons and red ribbons for first and second prizes, had been distributed among the different classes of exhibits.

COL. BRECKINRIDGE'S OPINION

On the Future Course of the National Democratic Party.

Lexington, Ky., June 11.—In reply to a letter asking for his views on the reorganization of the democratic party and future issues, Col. W. C. R. Breckinridge, former democratic congressman, says:

"The American people will never consent to such legislation concerning the currency as will put into a statute the views of Mr. Bryan. It is equally true that the American people will not approve of the territorial policy advocated by Mr. Bryan. For the next few years the currency issue and the expansion issue, tendered by the democratic party and accepted by the republican party, have been settled."

In the same letter he says: "We are therefore confronted with this actual state of facts. It is impossible to win without such a nominee and platform as will secure the support of those democrats who refused to vote for Mr. Bryan in 1896 and 1900, and it is also impossible to win without the cordial support of the regular democratic party. It has occurred to me that the issue in 1904 might be our relations with our new possessions. That the principle promulgated by the supreme court in the late opinions will be accepted by the people is certain."

After outlining the questions involved Col Breckinridge says: "To adopt this policy does not require that any democrat should retract any utterance heretofore made, or apologize for any course heretofore pursued."

BRIEF DISPATCHES.

Harry McGuire and John Winslip, army deserters, imprisoned on Governor's Island, N. Y., got away on a raft, were picked up by a kindly tugboat man and landed in New York. They are at liberty.

Korea is said to be full of gold and Americans are getting mining concessions rapidly, putting in stamp mills, etc., and preparing to bring the hermit kingdom to the front as a producer of the yellow metal.

Indians, 3,000 of them, participated in a presentation of the passion play in Chilliwack, B. C. Chief Charlie of the Seckelt tribe took the part of Christ. The presentation is said to have been a very spectacular and imposing affair.

Augustus Rathbone, aged 70, used to live in New York, went west years ago, piled up a fortune, and returned the other day to mudpie scenes, found the town bewildering big, forgot where his hotel was, forgot its very name, and as he had stored his valuables in the hotel safe, he was penniless, with $500 waiting for him somewhere in a great city. Police had a hard job, but reunited the old gentleman and his wealth.

WOEFUL DISASTER

EXPLOSION IN COAL MINE KILLS SIXTEEN MINERS.

HEROIC VOLUNTEER RESCUERS MEET A TERRIBLE DEATH.

HEARTRENDING SCENES ABOUT THE MOUTH OF THE MINE.

Port Royal, Pa., June 12.—As a result of Monday night's explosion in the Port Royal mines of the Pittsburgh Coal Co., 16 are dead, seven injured and thousands of dollars' worth of property destroyed.

The official list of dead and injured was made public by the coal company's officials last night.

When the first excitement had subsided a little, it was decided to try and rescue at least a part of those thought to be entombed. As quickly as possible a messenger was dispatched on horseback to West Newton, five miles away, and while waiting the arrival of appliances necessary to enter a burning mine a temporary rescue party, composed of men who had knocked off earlier in the day, was formed.

Fearlessly these men entered the shaft and started toward the spot where it was thought some of the entombed men might be found. Lying at the bottom of the shaft were Lawrence Settler and John Stakes. Unconscious and covered with dirt, the men were quickly taken to the top of the mine.

All sorts of plans were suggested for the rescue of the men. Some talked of turning the Youghiogeny river into the mine, but many opposed this idea for fear of drowning the miners. All that would be necessary to let a deluge of water loose in the mines would be to pull a plug which was placed in the mines after the explosion of many years ago, and the water would rush into the mines at a rapid rate.

W. A. Sweeney, Harry Beveridge and Frank Stratton succeeded in working their way to the pit mouth and were quickly put under the care of physicians. Beveridge and Stratton are unconscious and the physicians say they cannot live. Beveridge's arms are both broken, his body horribly bruised and it is believed he inhaled the flames.

The miners were hurled in all directions and Sweeney knows of at least three who were killed outright. He said it was impossible to tell now just how many men were entombed.

The Port Royal mines are situated on the Youghiogeny river, 37 miles from Pittsburgh. They are owned by the Pittsburgh Coal Co. The mines are located in the thick vein coal belt, and are for that reason extremely gaseous and dangerous. The state mining officials have made their management the object of repeated caution.

The fans were started up to clear the mine of smoke, fire damp and the after damp. Then a searching party composed of Capt. Wm. McCune and others went down the shaft. Nothing was heard of them, and in an hour another rescuing force, led by James Bailey and Wm. Williams, fire bosses, were let down. They had groped their way about 200 feet when two explosions were heard in rapid succession. The shaft lamps in the hands of Bailey and Williams were blown 50 feet away and they themselves were thrown violently to the ground. They arose to their feet and called for their comrades, but there was no answer. Both men hurried back to the shaft and were drawn up in the cage.

From that moment until 9 a. m. not another soul went down the shaft, as it would have meant certain death from afterdamp. The party that went in in the morning was composed of Mine Inspector Bernard Callahan, Gen. Supt. John Feese, Fire Boss McFee, Fire Boss Daniel McCullough, Fire Boss Peter McKinney and Pitt Boss Robert McKinney. All but Callahan were brought from the various mines of the Pittsburgh Coal Co. At 10 o'clock the body of Taylor Gunsaulus, Sr., was brought to the surface by the party headed by Inspector Callahan. A big crowd surrounded the mouth of the shaft, and when the corpse was brought out the scene was pitiful in the extreme.

Looked Upon as a Joke.

Washington, June 12.—Emilio Zubano of Tabayas province has proclaimed himself the successor of Aguinaldo and "governor of Tabayas and the Philippines," according to a copy of a Manila paper just received at the war department. Emilio is said to have always been a rather theatrical insurrectionist and to have sworn to fight the Americans down to the last bolt. The publication does not take the Filipino's announcement seriously and warns him that he will find "that the office carries with it certain grave responsibilities which will sooner or later result in heart failure and sudden demise."

Not Yet Identified.

Lowell, Mass., June 12.—The head of the woman whose mutilated body was found in Chelmsford woods on Saturday was found yesterday afternoon by private detectives under a bridge over a brook near where the original discovery was made. The body has not yet been identified.

Invader Has a Trial Trip.

Toronto, June 12.—Invader, the Canada's cup challenger, has had her first trial spin. The boat was not completely rigged, but the test was very satisfactory. A three-mile breeze was blowing. Beaver, the old challenger, had a start of 100 yards in about a mile, but she was passed before half the course was sailed over.

REMARKABLE RECORD

Criminal History of a Man Over 75 Years Old.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 12.—E. H. Merritt, arrested at Cedar Springs for the larceny of a watch, is 75 years old and has a remarkable criminal record. In 1859 a man named White moved on a farm near Merritt's place with his wife and 18-year-old son. Merritt and a man named Boyd passed the place when White and son were digging a well. They said they had killed a deer, and if the son would go with them he could have a share of the meat. In the woods Merritt shot the boy and then with Boyd returned to the house. White saw his son shot and took refuge in the house, barricading the door and after dark he escaped to a neighbor's house. The next day Merritt and Boyd were traced to a cabin and there Boyd was found shot dead by Merritt. Merritt was finally captured and sentenced to Jackson for 99 years. He was pardoned by Gov. Begole, and since then has lived with a brother in northern Kent. He refused to discuss his past record.

BEFORE GRAND JURY.

Mayor Perry and H. A. Taylor Appear Before It.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 12.—Mayor Perry was called before the grand jury, and from all accounts left his eagerness for a hearing at the door as he passed in. He exhibited telegrams, letters and photographs to show the alleged unsavory record of R. A. Cameron, who represented the eastern promoters in the hoodling operations, but either he did not know or had forgotten everything about the alleged hoodling that was done or attempted. H. A. Taylor, the eastern capitalist who financed the job, continued his testimony on a line to exonerate Thos. F. McGarry, but it is understood he did not attempt to shield some of the other local promoters. He left town immediately after giving his testimony. It is expected the grand jury will begin figuring on indictments today.

Choked With Bread Crumbs.

Bay City, Mich., June 12.—Mildred, the 14-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gordon, choked to death on bread crumbs. The child was sitting on the floor when she began to choke, and the frightened mother ran with her to a neighbor's. The women were unable to relieve the child, and before a doctor could be summoned she died in her mother's arms.

WRESTLING MATCH.

Jenkins Throws Sharkey After a Desperate Struggle.

Cleveland, O., June 12.—Central Armory, the largest auditorium in the city, was packed last night with a crowd that numbered between eight and ten thousand people to see the wrestling match between Sailor Tom Sharkey of New York and Tom Jenkins, champion of America. The terms of the contest were that Jenkins should throw Sharkey twice in an hour.

The first round started at 9:40, the men struggling severely for 19 minutes, when Jenkins threw Sharkey with an upright double Nelson hold. No holds were barred.

After an interval of 15 minutes the second round began, the men struggling for 21 minutes, when Sharkey's shoulders were forced to the floor a second time with a similar hold to that which put him down in the first round.

Sharkey was on the mat a large portion of the time and broke several of the Cleveland man's famous holds in a manner that showed great skill and strength.

TO SUPPRESS DETAILS

In Order to Wipe Out an Epidemic of Suicides.

Emporia, Kan., June 12.—An epidemic of suicides in this town, culminating yesterday in three attempts, all exact similar to recent successful suicides, caused the mayor and board of health to forbid publication of details of suicides or attempts in local papers. The board is acting on the theory that publication spreads the contagion of suicide by psychic suggestion. Mayor Morse contends that the liberty of the press is secondary to the public health and is prepared to use force, if necessary, under the nuisance act. All the editors, however, have agreed to suppress details of suicides or attempts until the epidemic abates.

The epidemic began with the suicide of Charles Cross, president of a wrecked bank, and in the last 30 days there have been seven cases, three successful.

Unset Rubies Seized.

New York, June 12.—Unset rubies to the value of 19,000 francs were seized by custom house inspectors in a room in the Grand Union hotel occupied by two young Belgians. The jewels were brought to this country by the young men, who were passengers on the steamer Zealand, which arrived here May 27 last from Antwerp. The rubies will be formally appraised today.

A Trip to the Moon.

Buffalo, June 12.—Secretary of War Root, Mrs. Root, Miss Root and Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Sprague visited the exposition again Tuesday. They visited the Indian congress and made a special trip to the moon in the airship Luna. Director General W. I. Buchanan of the Pan-American exposition will not go to St. Louis in any capacity in connection with the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

SUCCESSFUL RECITAL

GIVEN BY FRED ELLIS

The most successful recital held in Normal hall this year was given by Mr. Fred Ellis, baritone, and Mr. Howard Brown, organist, Tuesday evening, assisted by Misses Owen and Wallin, violinists, Mr. Henry Samson, cellist, Mr. Arthur Bostick, pianist, and Mr. Ray Buell, bass.

Mr. Brown is one of the most promising pupils ever graduated from the organ department of the Conservatory, and his work Tuesday evening was greatly enjoyed.

It is sufficient to say of Mr. Ellis that the general verdict of the audience was that he has never sung so well before. A remarkable growth is to be noticed in all phases of his singing.

GRAY

older than you are?

Yet it's impossible to look young with the color of 70 years in the hair. It's sad to see young persons look prematurely old in this way. Sad because it's all unnecessary; for gray hair may always be restored to its natural color by using

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

For over half a century this has been the standard hair preparation. It is an elegant dressing; stops falling of the hair; makes the hair grow; and cleanses the scalp from dandruff.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for over 20 years and I can heartily recommend it to the public as the best hair tonic in existence."
